The National Bank of Serbia shall pay interest on assets referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article deposited on the account, in line with the contract concluded with the depositor.

Operations for the Republic of Serbia

Article 61

On the basis of law or contract, and in the name and for account of the Republic of Serbia, the National Bank of Serbia may perform fiscal agent operations in connection with foreign borrowing of the Republic of Serbia, and/or operations concerning the disbursement of funds and repayment of foreign obligations, as well as issue long-term securities relating to the Republic of Serbia's membership in the International Monetary Fund.

The National Bank of Serbia may also perform other operations for the Republic of Serbia on the basis of law and/or contract.

Article 62

The National Bank of Serbia may not approve credits, loans, overdraft facilities or other forms of credit facilities to the Republic of Serbia, autonomous province or local government unit, public enterprises and other legal entities the founder of which is the Republic of Serbia, autonomous province or local government unit, or in which the Republic of Serbia, autonomous province or local government unit have a controlling participation, nor may it issue guarantees for the settlement of obligations of those entities or secure the settlement of their obligations otherwise.

The National Bank of Serbia may not directly purchase securities issued by entities referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

The prohibition from paragraph 1 of this Article shall neither apply to daily credits whose maturities cannot be extended nor to credits, loans, overdraft facilities or other types of credit facilities for the settlement of the Republic of Serbia's obligations based on its membership in the International Monetary Fund.

The National Bank of Serbia may approve credits and credit facilities to banks in which the Republic of Serbia, autonomous province or local government unit have a controlling participation under the conditions and in the manner set forth by this Law.

The Republic of Serbia, autonomous province or local government unit shall have a controlling participation referred to in paragraphs 1 and 4 of this Article if they directly or indirectly:

- 1) have a possibility to exercise more than 50% of voting rights in a legal entity, or
- 2) own more than 50% of the capital of such legal entity, or
- 3) can appoint more than one half of members of the board of directors or supervisory board or of another management body of a legal entity.

IV. SUPERVISORY FUNCTION OF THE NATIONAL BANK OF SERBIA

Article 63

The National Bank of Serbia shall issue and revoke operating licenses, exercise supervision over financial institutions, and undertake other measures in accordance with law.

Supervision of financial institutions shall be performed by the National Bank of Serbia in a way to ensure the operational independence of organisational units performing these operations as well as their separation from other functions and operations of the National Bank of Serbia and to prevent conflict of interest.

The National Bank of Serbia may adopt regulations setting forth the standards of safe and sound operation of the entities it supervises.

The National Bank of Serbia shall maintain a registry of issued operating licenses referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article. The registry shall be public, maintained in electronic form and accessible on the website of the National Bank of Serbia.

Article 64

When carrying out supervision of financial institutions, the National Bank of Serbia shall have the right to examine the books and other documentation of financial institutions, as well as of persons connected to them by ownership, management or business relations.

The National Bank of Serbia shall prescribe detailed conditions and manner of exercising the supervisory function in accordance with this and other law.

Article 65

To promote its supervisory function, the National Bank of Serbia shall cooperate with foreign institutions and domestic bodies and institutions responsible for supervision in the field of financial operations.

The National Bank of Serbia may exchange data gathered in the exercise of its supervisory function with the bodies and institutions referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

IVa BANK RESOLUTION FUNCTION

Article 65a

When carrying out resolution of bank, and/or member of a banking group and exercising other powers relating to resolution, the National Bank of Serbia shall be entitled to examine the books and other documentation of the bank, and/or member of the banking group, as well as the business books and other documentation of persons connected to them by ownership, management or business relations.

The National Bank of Serbia shall prescribe detailed conditions and manner of exercising the powers under paragraph 1 hereof, in accordance with this and other law.

Article 65b

For the purposes of exercising the resolution function, the National Bank of Serbia shall cooperate with the agency in charge of deposit insurance, other domestic authorities and institutions in charge of supervision in the area of financial operations, with foreign authorities in charge of resolution of financial institutions and supervision in the field of financial operations, as well as with other competent bodies.

The National Bank of Serbia may exchange the data obtained in the process of bank resolution with the authorities, institutions and bodies referred to in paragraph 1 hereof in accordance with the law governing banks.

Article 65c

Bank resolution operations shall be performed by the National Bank of Serbia in a way to ensure their operational independence and organisational separation from other functions and operations of the National Bank of Serbia and to prevent conflict of interest.

Supervision of financial institutions and bank resolution operations shall be performed by the National Bank of Serbia in a way to ensure separate management of each of these operations as well as their organisational separation and to prevent conflict of interest.

The general internal acts of the National Bank of Serbia shall govern in detail the cooperation and exchange of information between the organisational units whose scope of authority includes the operations referred to in paragraph 2 hereof, and between these organisational units and other organisational units of the National Bank of Serbia.

V. SPECIAL AUTHORITIES OF THE NATIONAL BANK OF SERBIA

Article 66

The National Bank of Serbia may grant an authorisation for the performance of external payment and credit operations to a bank, at the bank's request, provided it establishes that the bank satisfies the conditions for performing such operations prescribed by the National Bank of Serbia.

The National Bank of Serbia may revoke the authorisation referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article if the bank does not satisfy the conditions referred to in paragraph 1 of that Article.

Article 67

The National Bank of Serbia shall maintain registries of banks authorised to perform external payment and credit operations, registries of approvals granted for the opening of branches, other organisational forms and representative offices of banks abroad, as well as of representative offices of foreign banks in the Republic of Serbia.

The National Bank of Serbia shall prescribe the terms of registration and the manner of maintaining the registries referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

The registries referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be public books.

The data entered in the registries referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be public.

VI. INFORMATION SYSTEM OF THE NATIONAL BANK OF SERBIA

Article 68

The National Bank of Serbia may prescribe an obligation for legal entities and entrepreneurs to record, collect, process and submit relevant data.

The National Bank of Serbia shall prescribe in further detail the contents of data referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and the manner in which they are to be submitted.

Article 69

For the purposes of efficient execution of its functions and achievement of its objectives, the National Bank of Serbia shall develop automated information systems, and prescribe the manner and conditions for inclusion of legal entities and entrepreneurs into those systems.

Article 70

Based on data obtained from legal entities and entrepreneurs, its own databases and automated information systems, the National Bank of Serbia shall compile balance sheets and reports, in accordance with law.

VII. RELATION OF THE NATIONAL BANK OF SERBIA TO THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY AND THE GOVERNMENT

Article 71

The National Bank of Serbia shall submit the monetary policy programme for the forthcoming year to the National Assembly, for information purposes, by no later than 15 December of the current year.

The National Bank of Serbia shall submit to the National Assembly, by no later than 30 June of the following year, an annual report on monetary policy, with an explanation of all the factors affecting the implementation of that policy, as well as the annual report on the stability of the financial system.

The National Bank of Serbia shall submit to the National Assembly, by no later than 30 September of the current year, a semi-annual report on monetary policy, with an explanation of all the factors affecting the implementation of that policy.

The National Bank of Serbia shall submit to the National Assembly, by no later than 30 June of the following year, an annual report on its activities and results.

The contents of reports from paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of this Article shall be determined by the Statute.

The National Bank of Serbia shall publish the monetary policy programme referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article in the RS Official Gazette without delay.

The Governor shall explain the monetary policy programme and the reports referred to in this Article in the National Assembly.

The National Assembly may not give any instructions to the National Bank of Serbia based on the submitted monetary policy programme and the reports referred to in this Article.

Article 72

The Governor may be invited to attend meetings of the Government.

The Government and/or the relevant ministries shall submit to the National Bank of Serbia drafts of laws and other regulations relating to the objectives, tasks, rights and obligations of the National Bank of Serbia for the purposes of obtaining an opinion thereon.

Within the time limits laid down by the law on budget system, the Government and/or the relevant ministry shall timely submit to the National Bank of Serbia a draft of the memorandum on budget, economic and fiscal policies and a draft of the law on budget, for the purposes of obtaining an opinion thereon.

The ministry in charge of finance shall, at least once a year, provide the National Bank of Serbia with a written notification of planned new borrowings of the Republic of Serbia abroad, as well as of expected disbursement of foreign loans and repayment under such loans, in order for the National Bank of Serbia to analyse the impact of such borrowing on determination and implementation of monetary policy.

The ministry in charge of finance shall timely notify the National Bank of Serbia of any transactions of the Republic of Serbia relating to its external borrowing.

Article 72a

The National Bank of Serbia shall be entitled to propose to the National Assembly the laws within its scope of competence.

At the meeting of the National Assembly, the Governor or Vice-Governor shall explain the laws proposed by the National Bank of Serbia.

VIII. ASSETS, REVENUE, EXPENDITURE AND CAPITAL

Article 73

Assets of the Republic of Serbia used by the National Bank of Serbia shall comprise dinar and foreign currency short-term and long-term placements, foreign exchange funds, securities, other assets and property rights of the National Bank of Serbia, chattels and realties, and pecuniary assets in the giro account of the National Bank of Serbia.

The assets referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be used for the operation of the National Bank of Serbia.

The Governor shall pass acts on the procurement and use of assets referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, as well as on their management and disposal, but not acts on the alienation of immovables.

Article 74

The National Bank of Serbia shall have a financial plan setting out the revenues and expenditures of the National Bank of Serbia planned for the next year.

The National Bank of Serbia shall submit to the National Assembly, for information purposes, the financial plan for the next year by no later than 31 December of the current year.

Article 75

The Council shall submit the annual financial statements, along with the external auditor's report, to the National Assembly, for information purposes, by no later than 30 June of the following year.

The National Bank of Serbia shall publish the annual financial statements in the RS Official Gazette within a month following the date of their submission to the National Assembly.

Article 80

(deleted)

Article 81

Audit of annual financial statements shall be carried out in the manner prescribed by the law governing financial statement auditing and International Standards on Auditing.

The National Bank of Serbia shall select an external auditor in line with the law governing public procurements, for a period of minimum three business years.

Article 81a

The National Bank of Serbia shall have an organisational unit in charge of internal audit (hereinafter: Internal Audit).

The manager of Internal Audit shall be appointed by the Council based on a public vacancy notice.

Internal audit shall be performed in accordance with the plan adopted by the Council, though it may also be performed on an ad hoc basis at the request of the Council, Executive Board or Governor.

X. ORGANISATION OF WORK AND STATUS OF EMPLOYEES

Article 82

Pursuant to law, detailed organisation of work of the National Bank of Serbia shall be laid down by the Statute and internal general acts of the National Bank of Serbia, and in particular:

- 1) internal organisation of the National Bank of Serbia and job classification in the National Bank of Serbia;
- 2) rights, obligations and responsibilities of managing staff;
- 3) rights, obligations and responsibilities of employees in performing their activities and tasks;
- 4) salaries and remunerations of the National Bank of Serbia's officials and employees;
- 5) protection of data marked with a degree of secrecy (hereinafter: secret data) and security of information in the National Bank of Serbia;
- 6) document management in the National Bank of Serbia.

Article 83

The law governing labour relations shall apply to the rights, obligations and responsibilities of the National Bank of Serbia's employees arising from employment, unless otherwise provided by this Law.

Article 84

The hiring at the National Bank of Serbia shall be performed by the Governor.

Article 85

In the performance of their activities, the officials of the National Bank of Serbia and employees may not be guided by political considerations.

The provisions of Article 20, paragraph 1, items 2) to 4) of this Law shall accordingly apply to the employees.

Subject to prior written consent of the Governor, an employee may take on additional paid work and activities outside his working hours provided the performance of such work and activities does not lead to a conflict of interests nor affects the impartial performance of his tasks.

Article 86

In accordance with regulations, the National Bank of Serbia shall store archival records and/or documentary material generated in the course of the National Bank of Serbia's work and the work of bodies and organisations legally succeeded by the National Bank of Serbia, and other archival records and/or documentary material in its possession.

Article 86a

Data generated in the course of the National Bank of Serbia's work that are designated as secret shall in particular be those relating to:

- 1) foreign exchange reserve management;
- 2) negotiations with the organisations and institutions referred to in Article 11 of this Law;
- 3) issuance of banknotes and coins and cash circulation management;
- 4) individual data and business performance indicators of entities supervised by the National Bank of Serbia.

Other data generated in the course of the National Bank of Serbia's work which, if disclosed to unauthorised persons, could jeopardise the achievement of objectives and the performance of the tasks of the National Bank of Serbia, may also be designated as secret by law or general internal act of the National Bank of Serbia.

Officials and employees of the National Bank of Serbia shall be obliged to keep secret data irrespective of the manner in which they have learned such data.

The obligation referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall remain in force even after termination of employment or engagement at the National Bank of Serbia.

Article 86b

The National Bank of Serbia, the Governor, Vice-Governors and other employees shall not be liable for the damage caused in the performance of the tasks of the National Bank of Serbia, unless proven that they did not act in good faith.

The employees specified in paragraph 1 hereof shall not be liable for the damage referred to therein even after termination of their employment and/or discharge of office in the National Bank of Serbia.

The National Bank of Serbia shall bear the costs of legal representation of the persons from paragraph 1 hereof in court and administrative procedures initiated in connection with the tasks referred to in that paragraph.

The National Bank of Serbia shall also bear the costs from paragraph 3 hereof in case of persons whose employment with the National Bank of Serbia has terminated.

If established in appropriate procedure by a final decision that the persons from paragraph 1 hereof have caused the damage referred to therein deliberately or by gross negligence, these persons shall reimburse the National Bank of Serbia for the costs of representation under paragraph 3 hereof, as well as for the sum paid out in compensation for the damage in accordance with law.

Article 86c

An administrative dispute may be initiated against an administrative act of the National Bank of Serbia passed in the performance of its tasks, but an action against such act may neither prevent nor postpone its implementation.

In an administrative dispute against the act referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article the court may not resolve an administrative matter the resolving of which is placed under the scope of authority of the National Bank of Serbia by this Law.
